Melbourne

A TRAINING ON COLLABORATIVE LAW
BY LAWYERS FOR LAWYERS
20 - 21 May 2016 Melbourne
23 May 2016 Canberra

Providing training in accordance with the Australian Collaborative Practice Guidelines for Lawyers issued by the Law Council of Australia

Family Lawyers should attend if they wish:

1. To develop skills to assist their clients reach agreement without Court intervention.
2. To avoid Court delays and avoid Court imposed solutions to your clients problems.

Presented By

Juliette Ford

Juliette is a Partner of Farrar Gesini Dunn with a practice primarily based out of Canberra. Juliette is also a former Registrar of the Family Court of Australia, Canberra Registry. After many years litigating Juliette now uses her skills as an interest-based negotiator and collaborator to help clients reach solutions which are focused on what they value and not just what a court might order. Juliette listens to her clients, understands what their goals are, and uses her experience and technical expertise to help her clients achieve the best outcome possible. She is widely considered one of the driving forces of Collaboration in Canberra.

Bradley Hunter Q.C.

Bradley Hunter Q.C. is a partner of Hunter Peterson Deagle LLP, Barristers, Solicitors and Collaborative Lawyers located in Saskatchewan Canada. Brad is former Chair of the Canadian Bar Association National Family Law Section, founding President of the Collaborative Lawyers of Saskatchewan Inc., and former Board Member of the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. Brad's practice consists of litigation, arbitration and collaborative law. In addition to his practice, Brad spends much of his time training, teaching, and spreading the collaborative idea. Brad has conducted Collaborative training in Australia on three previous occasions.
